

Conversational Spanish

pay gar(d) la go-rrah: we are broke and we love Jesus, the way only broke people can.

oh-(h)allah, cay? you eva cafe en el camp-o: Lets drink wine, a lot of wine. Miracles of wine.
And when the water comes, or the fires burn, pray like only the washed away can pray.

poor, see las mos-cas: Before the limes rot and before the balance goes inevitably goes red; to scrub our porches clean with hope, and ward off everything (good or bad) we laugh and drink and wait and pray and slowly measure out our graves.