tonight the stage is a permanent building all praise to the guru's puja 1. welcome to the drama house a song of the vedas before a time of gods and heroes these are the shadows of a remote age all we know is thrown up to the screen telegraphed and projected from somewhere else the earth is our short bridge 2. no existance or non-existance no death or immortality no signar right nothing beyond then desire came from emptiness order and truth were born from the heat as it Mazed and and then the queen gave birth to the sky and earth where we write our song to her 3. the song that drives out confusion like the pure milk oceans that surround this island sita is the sun hanuman is the mirror together they destroy he who is death to deale all life has problems but at least they end today our story begins and tomorrow we will tell? of the colossal battle between rama and the poet's verse this bridge to a new sun is rising a sun to fill all tired eyes 4. under these strobe lights and dancing colors we spread across the proverse in praise saraswati is majestic and her music unfolds from the lotus and her blessings A PEACE TRUP are for the children

A GOOD TRI

2

no sounds but world sounds

Stroboscopic Collage Decoder a special for The Flesh 2008

for d.a. levy 1942-1968

Cary Loren, 2013 Kresge Artist Fellow in the Literary Arts